

News flash

safety

integrity

respect

responsibility

innovation

delivery

Yunus Suleman appointed new Gold Fields Chair

Yunus Suleman has been appointed as the new Gold Fields Chair of the Board with effect from the 2022 Annual General Meeting, scheduled for 1 June 2022. Mr Suleman will succeed Cheryl Carolus, who previously announced she was stepping down after 7 years as Chair of the Company.

Ms Carolus congratulated Mr Suleman on the appointment, saying, “I am honoured to be handing over the Chair of the Board to someone of the calibre of Mr Suleman, who has been an integral part of the refreshing of the Board in recent years.”

The Board paid tribute to Ms Carolus’s contributions to and leadership at the Gold Fields Board, which she joined in 2009 and led as Chair from 2013: “We cannot express our gratitude enough to Ms Carolus for her role as Chair of the Company. Her contributions will remain part of Gold Fields for many years to come.”

YUNUS SULEMAN BIO

Mr Suleman was appointed to the Gold Fields Board in 2016 and has served as Chair of the Audit Committee. He has over 35 years’ experience in the auditing and accounting profession – first at Arthur Andersen and then at KPMG when the two companies merged in 2002. He was Chairperson of KPMG South Africa until February 2015 and has held various non-executive director positions.

Share your feedback on this Newsflash email: GroupComms@goldfields.com

